ARREST ASKED IN DEATH QUIZ DAWES REBUKED BY LAWMAKERS

VICE PRESIDENT RAPPED FOR ACT AT INAUGURATION

Senate Adopts Resolution To Correct "Mistakes" Made By General Dawes

"HELL-MARIAN" IS NOT TAMED
Fiery Chief Takes Medicine Like Spartan of Old, Without Giving In

BY FRANKLIN WISNER
Staff Correspondent Universal Service

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The Senate took the bit in its teeth today and ran roughshod over its presiding officer—the fiery Charles G. Dawes, of "Hell-Maria" fame, Vice-President of the United States.

In a dignified but determined manner, the Senate made Dawes "eat crow" in reprisal for his severe rebukes administered by him to the members in his inaugural address scoring them for preserving archaic rules, which he declared prevent transaction of business with order and dispatch.

DAWES TAKES MEDICINE.
Dawes took his medicine like a Spartan and showed no disposition to hit back. He gave no indication, however, that he has been "tamed" or that he will henceforth submit mildly to open rebuke.

Punishment for Dawes took the form of a resolution adopted by unanimous consent, correcting "mistakes and blunders he made," according to Senate leaders, when he unceremoniously cast aside the rules of the Senate and ignored "red tape" by taking short cuts in swearing in 24 new members en bloc.

Prior to the submission of the resolution Senator Ashurst of Arizona took occasion to rise on a question of the highest personal privilege and said:

PROCEDURE UNSEEMLY.

"The press of the country today carried some criticisms made by me of the Vice-President's inaugural speech. With much of that speech I am in thorough accord and my criticism was directed mainly at the untimely and unseemly manner in which the oaths were administered to the new members of this body."

Ashurst referred to the fact that to save time Dawes had "herded" the Senators in a group, administered the oath to them and then "shooed" them out of the Senate chamber before they had signed the roll as prescribed by law, to attend the inauguration of President Coolidge.

Welfare Council Names Committee For Nominations

Varied activities of the Contra Costa Welfare Council were subjects of reports and discussions at a dinner meeting of 18 members of the association in Martinez Wednesday night.

Arrangements were made for the annual meeting to be held in Martinez on June 1, when officers will be elected.

Thomas Boyer, probation officer, president of the council, named a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Nora L. Purviance, of Richmond, Miss Helen Burling, of Concord, and Miss Mary Farey, of Antioch.

An auditing committee composed of Miss Helen Rodda, of Pittsburg, T. B. Swift and Mrs. Holloway, of Martinez, was named to report at the June session.

Cabinet Ready To Meet With Coolidge Today In Conference

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Except for the office of Attorney-General President Coolidge's cabinet is complete. The first meeting of the cabinet with the President will be held tomorrow morning.

Secretary of State Kellogg and Secretary of Agriculture Jardine were sworn in today and the nominations of Charles Beecher Warren to be attorney-general and Harry S. New, for reappointment as postmaster-general, were sent to the Senate. Under the law creating the office of postmaster-general, the appointment must be renewed at the beginning of every Presidential term. The Senate immediately confirmed New's appointment, but referred Warren's to the judiciary committee.

The Cabinet will sit with the President tomorrow as follows:

State—Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota.
Treasury—Andrew W. Mellon Pennsylvania.
War—John W. Weeks, Massachusetts.
Navy—Curtis D. Wilbur, California.
Postoffice—Harry S. New, Indiana.
Interior—Herbert Work, Colorado.
Agriculture—William M. Jardine, Kansas.
Commerce—Herbert C. Hoover, California.
Labor—James John Davis, Pennsylvania.

Pex Cage Team Finds McRackens Are Undefeatable

The Pex basketball team found to their sorrow last night at the Roosevelt Junior High school gym that when the McRackens cagers declare they will be victorious they usually are victorious.

Nevertheless the issue was in doubt for a long time. The score was tied at the end of the game 20 to 20 making an extra 5 minute session necessary. In this time the local quintet staged a rally that completely bewildered the Berkeley boys and when the time was up the score stood 28 to 20 in favor of Richmond—8 points in five minutes for McRackens and none for Pex.

Keller, who starred for the locals, did some basket shooting that has never been equaled on this floor before. During the last period he shot a basket from beyond the center line and in less than a minute repeated the feat, thus putting the game on ice.

After the cage game, the representatives of the four teams who have signed up for the Richmond Baseball league met in "Doc" Seawright's office at the school and talked over the prospects of the season. The Santa Fe team, the Snider Tailors and the Marcantile Trust aggregation definitely announce that they will be in the league. The Pullman team is in doubt yet but it is believed that wit a little coaxing will come in.

All who attended the session expressed great confidence in the success of the league here this season and all hoped that Pullman would come in and make it a four cornered league.

AS PRESIDENT COOLIDGE TOOK THE PLEDGE

Herewith the Record-Herald presents another striking evidence of the modern miracle of science, a reproduction of a photograph transmitted from Washington, D. C. by telephone. This scene was snapped in Washington, Wednesday, during the inauguration of President Calvin Coolidge and was re-produced in San Francisco eight minutes later. One hour later it was in the Record-Herald office.

In short, about one hour and eight minutes after the actual happening, 3,600 miles away, the photograph was ready for newspaper purposes here. The scene shows President Coolidge taking the oath of office, with Chief Justice Taft officiating.

1100 Trainmen of Santa Fe Railroad Take Strike Vote

Eleven hundred railroad engineers and firemen, employed on the Santa Fe railroad west of Albuquerque, N. M., including California, are taking a strike vote. It has been announced. Enforcement of the trainmen's demands for a five per cent increase in pay which was granted to them last year by the labor board, and which the men request to become effective immediately, is said to be the question causing the strike ballot.

Neither the employees nor the railroad officials have issued any statement on the strike vote.

Letters Lost Of Post Office Thief

A burglar forced an entrance to the store of Mrs. K. C. Pierson at Giant, Wednesday night, and stole several letters from the post office maintained in conjunction with the store, according to a report to county officers.

Deputy Sheriff J. W. Smiley, who made an investigation, found that entrance had been gained by forcing the front door. As far as could be learned the letters were the only loot stolen. It is not known whether they contained valuables.

"Quality" Throned As Watch Word in New Fashion Store

From the windows in front, to the Ladies Rest Room in the rear, "Quality" seems to be the watch word in the newly remodeled and repainted Fashion store, 829 Macdonald, which is to give its official spring opening today, tomorrow and Monday.

With careful eye as to detail, the manager, A. J. Abraham, has contrived to give the place a metropolitan atmosphere. Finished in French gray and tastefully arranged, the place is shown off to its best advantage.

I. Fox, window dresser from San Francisco, has been employed to dress the windows, where the latest in dresses, military frocks, ensembles, afternoon and evening gowns, are displayed in a riot of color, with blossoms and spring flowers for a background.

The latest things bearing the official approval of the "Best Dressed Woman in America," Irene Castle, are being shown in abundance.

The millinery reflects the same exactness of the dresses. Blue, red, yellow, purple, orange, green, all have their own representatives among the bright hats. Flowers are the predominating ornament with some gold and silver braid. The large drooping hat seems to be the favorite, but the small hat has its place.

In coats the Fashion shows the newest shadow, cedarwood, sandalwood and light henna, nearly all with the light summer fur trimming.

A. J. Abraham, through his buyer, Mrs. Blanche Karp, has been planning and buying for this opening for the past several months and the exhibit shows much care and taste.

Building Permits Issued Yesterday

Gets Divorce In Fifteen Minutes

Clifford O. Houck, of Richmond, was given an interlocutory decree of divorce from Jessie Houck, by Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado in Martinez yesterday, within fifteen minutes after the suit was filed. Attorneys for Mrs. Houck permitted trial on stipulation, the woman not appearing. Houck was granted custody of two children.

Houck charged that his wife threw a rocking chair at him on an undesignated date in 1917, and on the same day hurled a butcher knife in his direction. A week later, he claimed, Mrs. Houck attempted to stab him with a butcher knife. They married in 1908 and separated on October 6, 1924.

T. H. DeLap represented Houck, while Wilbur Pierce and T. M. Carlson appeared for Mrs. Houck.

SPEEDER FINED AFTER CHASE

After a six mile chase yesterday morning, Raymond Neckel, 761 Ninth street, was taken under arrest on a charge of speeding at 35 miles per hour and when he appeared before Police Judge C. A. Odell he was assessed a fine of $40 and his driver's license suspended for 60 days. Judge Odell stated that he levied such a severe penalty because Neckel has continually disregarded all speed laws.

Coolidge Spends First Day With Official And Social Events

BY EDWARD FRAZER

Universal Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Coolidge spent his first day as chief executive by the mandate of the people in filling a crowded official and social schedule.

The President was at his desk before 9, showing no signs of fatigue from the strenuous activities incident to the inaugural ceremonies. He was in a happy mood as he scanned the flood of congratulatory messages pouring into the White House from all parts of the country, wishing him a successful administration.

Frank B. Kellogg, the new Secretary of State, conferred with the President for nearly an hour, immediately after taking the oath. He said a variety of subjects relating to international affairs and the State Department were discussed, but declined to disclose the nature of the matters touched upon.

Owing to the length of the President's conference with Kellogg, William M. Jardine, the new Secretary of Agriculture, who waited in an ante room, was delayed in taking the oath at his department. Jardine left hurriedly after a short talk with the President.

A successor to Brigadier-General William M. Mitchell, Assistant Chief of the Army Air Service, is understood to have been discussed with Secretary Weeks. A decision in the matter will be deferred by the President until the list of candidates for the place is thoroughly canvassed, it was said.

After being notified by Senators Curtis and Robinson, Republican and Democratic leaders, acting as a committee, that the Senate was in special session and ready for business, the President sent up the nominations of Postmaster-General New, a reappointment, and Charles Beecher Warren of Michigan, to be Attorney-General.

Politicians who failed to see the President before the inaugural ceremonies continued to flock to the executive offices before leaving the city. In the afternoon, the President and Mrs. Coolidge received all members of the National Committee who are in the city.

The offices were choked with callers in the noonday reception line which is open to the public. Nearly 700 shook hands with the President.

In the afternoon the President found time to visit with his father, Colonel John Coolidge, and Mrs. Lamira Goodhue, mother of Mrs. Coolidge, who are White House guests. John Coolidge, his son, left last night to resume his studies at Amherst.

Six Bells Cafe May Be Reopened

The Six Bells Cafe, on San Pablo avenue, owned by Joe Chebarych, who has figured in several sensational encounters with officers, may be opened as a store and market after having been closed for several months for violation of liquor laws.

Mrs. S. M. Wirig, of Richmond, has petitioned Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado to permit her to open the place under lease and the court has taken the petition under advisement. Judge Alvarado declared that he wanted absolute assurance that Chebarych would not even rent a room in the leased premises. A bond will be required of Mrs. Wirig if the establishment is opened.

Woman Believes Missing Man Bought Germs for Disease From her Laboratory

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO March 5.—The arrest of William D. Shepherd, chief figure in the investigation into the death of William Nelson McClintock, million aire orphan, shortly after he had made a will in behalf of Shepherd, was ordered by the State's Attorney's office tonight.

No charge will be preferred against Shepherd immediately. The order for his arrest followed futile efforts to find him for the purpose of confronting him with the woman proprietor of a biological laboratory who said his pictures resembled those of a man to whom she said typhoid germs, PERJURY IS CHARGED.

Shepherd's disappearance came hard on the heels of an attempt by his attorney, Edwin Hedrick, to block a threatened investigation of McClintock's death by a Grand Jury.

"I came here to show that some of the witnesses who have testified at the Coroner's inquest have committed the rankest perjury," said Hedrick after a long conference with Assistant State's Attorneys. "There is a damnable conspiracy in this case and I intend to prove it."

METHODS PROTESTED

Mr. Hedrick protested against the methods of questioning witnesses by the prosecutors. He declared that Marie Gaertner, his former maid and a witness to the McClintock will, was in a state of collapse as the result of the ordeal to which she had been subjected. He said she had been threatened, called vile names and frightened by hints of jail. Formal denial was issued by the State's Attorney.

Reports persist that Judge Harry Olson, who has been the active factor in the attempt to fasten a criminal charge on Shepherd, has filed application with the Attorney-General of the State that he take a hand, thus removing the State's Attorney of Cook county from further handling of the matter.

Richmond Singers To Give Concert At County Seat

The Richmond Vocalians, comprising between 25 and 35 male voices, will be heard in a song and entertainment program to be given at the Methodist church in Martinez, on the evening of Thursday, March 12. Arrangements for the appearance of the organization, which has attracted considerable attention in this part of the state, was completed yesterday by Rev. A. A. Chapman.

Jazz music has no place on the programs rendered by the Vocalians. Listed in its numbers are "Martyrs of the Arena," "Soldiers' Chorus," and "Comrades in Arms," with quartets, trios, duets, solos readings and humorous selections. No one in the organization, the manager not excepted, is paid. The Vocalians declared their reward is singing for recreation, love of music and a desire to raise the standard of music and aid others in thinking in musical terms.

WHY I BELIEVE IN RICHMOND AND THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

BY HARRY W. WERNSE,
Of The Richmond Investment Company

I believe a Chamber of Commerce means progress for any city, especially for Richmond, providing they have a live secretary. One who has vision and is willing to use it and willing to speak right out in meeting.

I believe Richmond has a secretary who has vision and is trying to help the citizens open their eyes to their greatest opportunity.

The people of Richmond are like the people of most every young city, they are satisfied with themselves and with their city and very often lose sight of the fact that cities are built, they don't grow.

The secretary of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce is helping the people of Richmond to see their city in the right light and to take advantage of those opportunities that the Lord has put in their path and I believe he will be successful.

OIL INDUSTRY SERVES PUBLIC

Reviewing conditions in the petroleum industry, J. Edgar Pew, President of the American Petroleum Institute, expresses the opinion that "the condition of the oil business is better than it has been for several years."

"Within the industry there is a better spirit of cooperation for the benefit of all. Standards of equipment are being established that should very considerably reduce the costs of materials and increase the efficiency of all field labor. Drilling operations are conducted with better success as a result of geological data, largely developed within the past few years. New pools of oil are being discovered with greater frequency and with less of the wildcat type of operations than ever before.

"The relations of the industry to the public are improving. The problems confronting the industry, its responsibilities and its great achievements are being better understood.

"I do not look with alarm upon any prophecies of scarcity of oil during this year, or for many years to come. The oil industry has in a big way accomplished the seemingly impossible in the amount of oil it has produced notwithstanding repeated predictions to the contrary that there was no such amount of oil to be had. I am confident that the precedent of its past performances will be fully maintained in the future for many years to come, and until science and invention shall have provided a good and sufficient substitute for oil products. This seems to me to be a safe presumption. On the whole, the future of the legitimate oil business looks very bright."

AMERICAN PRODUCTION HIGH

John W. Lief, vice-pres. New York Edison Company, shows how the increase in the use of electrical energy is of ever-increasing value to efficiency of workers. He says:

"A comparison of the average horsepower available per workman and his increased productiveness, shows that in 1899 the horsepower per worker was 2.12 as against 3.10 in 1924, while in former years the annual value added to products per wage worker was $1.025, as against $1.404 in the latter.

"Through the output per workman is undoubtedly influenced by many factors, this increase in the application of mechanical power as a substitute for manual labor is undoubtedly a cause of the rapidly increasing wealth of the country and the emancipation of workers from drudgery and heavy labor.

"Largely through supply of adequate power deftly applied by American genius will this country, in the coming years, be able to hold her leading place in the markets of the world and still maintain for its workers the high plane of American living conditions."

LAWLESSNESS A NATIONAL PROBLEM

A. S. Bedford, of the Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey, blames lawlessness, not upon the police or the courts, but rather upon the mass consciousness. He says:

"Last year, a total of around $2,750,000 was taken in hold-ups, burglaries and confidence games, and another round total of $100,000,000 was stolen through forgeries. When you add the collateral cost of crime, its detection and punishment, we are struck with the appalling fact that the total bill last year equaled our national budget—$3,500,000,000. I am convinced that good citizenship cannot be forced upon people by more laws or more police. It must be the result of education and moral training that makes crime repugnant. The church can certainly take the lead in this kind of education."

Good morals is good government and good citizenship. It is money in the bank and food on the table and one's own roof over one's head. There is no better business than to make men better.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

DRESS By MARY MARSHALL

Paul Poirot of Paris is apparently coming forward as the champion of the bustle. At least in the recent showing of his gowns for spring in Paris there have been several examples of this fashion detail of the period of 1880. Looking back at the costumery of that period it seems to many of us that the bustle is one of the things that make us so glad we flourish in this period instead of in the days of Du Maurier and Ellen Terry and Lily Langtry in their prime.

The reason for Poirot's revived interest in the bustle is not hard to find. It was he who was chosen to design the costumes for the play, "Sarah Bernhardt" when it appeared in Paris. Through true in the main to the fashions of the period these recreated bustle gowns of Poirot's for this play proved more charming to the present beholder than any actual gowns of the day could possibly do. Their little boxes of ribbons, frills and frons had an undeniable charm.

This inspired Poirot departed still further from the rigidity and prim-

A good way to bleach and clean unfinished wood that has become discolored is to apply with a brush a solution made from one teaspoon of oxalic acid and a cup of hot water. This should be allowed to dry on the wood and then the surface should be scrubbed well with soap and water.

THE NEW EMBROIDERY

Milliners and dressmakers speak of rince embroidery nowadays. To the student of art rince signifies the style of decoration used in ornamentation of furniture and woodwork in the eighteenth century, consisting of "garlands, festoons, shells, a profusion of sinuous lines entwining and interlacing," in place of pilasters, colonnades and flat moldings.

WITH MUTTON

Soak a tablespoonful of haricot beans overnight. Cut the mutton into small pieces, and fry them just brown in a little dripping. Peel and cut up a carrot, turnip, and onion, and fry them for five minutes in the fat the meat was fried in. Put the meat in a casserole or stewpan, with a seasoning of salt and pepper, the vegetables, and haricot beans. Just cover with water. Bring to the boil remove any scum, then simmer for two hours.

Two cutlets, or four small, may be cut off from the neck of mutton and grilled or fried in egg and breadcrumbs and served with mashed potatoes or surrounded with boiled macaroni and tomato sauce.

ABOUT FLOORS

IN scrubbing wooden floors with a brush care should be taken to use the brush with the grain of the wood and not crosswise or in a circular motion, as this wears out the wood. A good way to take spots from waxed floors is to rub the spot with a very little alcohol and then cover

BAREE, SON OF KAZAN

James Oliver Curwood

A LOVE EPIC OF THE FAR NORTH

Copyright, 1917, by Doubleday, Page & Co.

"BAREE, SON OF KAZAN," a Vitaphone Picture, with Wolf, the War Dog, is an Adaptation of This Story

SYNOPSIS

Baree, wandering in the woods, came upon Wakayoo, the black bear, and, fascinated, watched him knock fish out of the pool. He learned where Wakayoo cached his provisions, a discovery that solved the food problem for the young wolf-dog. One day he suddenly found himself face to face with Pierrot, the trapper, and his daughter, Nepeese, the Willow, who a few days before had shot and slightly wounded Baree, thinking him a wolf. Nepeese now pursued Baree, who concealed himself beneath a great boulder.

From where he lay Baree could see what happened. Scarcely had he crawled under the rock when Nepeese and Pierrot appeared through the break in the dip, and stopped. The fact that they stopped thrilled Baree. They were afraid of Wakayoo! The big bear was two thirds of the way across the meadow. The sun fell on him, so that his coat shone like black satin. Pierrot stared at him for a moment. Pierrot did not kill for the love of killing. Necessity made him a conservationist. But he saw that in spite of the lateness of the season, Wakayoo's coat was splendid—and he raised his rifle.

Baree saw this action. He saw, a moment later, something spit from the end of the gun, and then he heard that deafening crash that had come with his own hurt, when the Willow's bullet had burned through his flesh. He turned his eyes swiftly to Wakayoo. The big bear had stumbled; he was on his knees; and then he struggled up and lumbered on.

The roar of the rifle came again, and a second time Wakayoo went down. Pierrot could not miss at that distance. Wakayoo made a splendid mark. It was slaughter; yet for Pierrot and Nepeese it was business—the business of life.

Baree was shivering. It was more from excitement than fear, for he had lost his own fear in the tragedy of these moments. A low whine rose in his throat as he looked at Wakayoo, who had risen again and faced his enemies—his jaws gaping, his head swinging slowly, his legs weakening under him as the blood poured through his torn lungs. Baree whined—because Wakayoo had fished for him, because he had come to look on him as a friend, and because he knew it was death that Wakayoo was facing now. There was a third shot—the last. Wakayoo sank down in his tracks. His big head dropped between his forepaws. A racking cough or two came to Baree. And then there was silence.

CHAPTER VIII

As Nepeese gazed about the rock-walled end of the canyon, the prison into which they had driven Wakayoo and Baree, Pierrot looked up again from his skinning of the big black bear, and he muttered something that no one but himself could have heard. "Non, it is not possible," he had said a moment before; but to Nepeese it was possible—the thought that was in her mind. It was a wonderful thought. It thrilled her to the depth of her wild, beautiful soul. It sent a glow into her eyes and a deeper flush of excitement into her cheeks and lips.

As she questioned the ragged edges of the little meadow for signs of the dog-pup, her thoughts flashed back swiftly. Two years ago they had buried her princess mother under the tall spruce near their cabin. That day Pierrot's sun had set for all time, and her own life was filled with a vast loneliness. There had been three at the graveside that afternoon as the sun went down—Pierrot, herself, and a dog, a great, powerful husky with a white star on his breast and a white-tipped ear. He had been her dead mother's pet from puppyhood—her body-guard, with her always, even with his head resting on the side of her bed as she died. And that night, the night of the day they buried her, the dog had disappeared. He had gone as quietly and as completely as her spirit. No one ever saw him after that. It was strange, and to Pierrot it was a miracle. Deep in his heart he was filled with the wonderful conviction that the dog had gone with his beloved Wyola into heaven.

But Nepeese had spent three winters at the Missioner's school at Nelson House. She had learned a great deal about white people and the real God, and she knew that Pierrot's thought was impossible. She believed that her mother's husky was either dead or had joined the wolves. Probably he had gone to the wolves. So—was it not possible that this youngster she and her father had pursued was of the flesh and blood of her mother's pet? It was more than possible.

Baree had not moved an inch from under his rock. He lay like a thing stunned, his eyes fixed steadily on the scene of the tragedy out in the meadow.

Baree wanted to approach. It was like an invisible string tugging at his very heart. It was Kazan, and not Gray Wolf, calling to him back through the centuries, a "call" that was as old as the Egyptian pyramids and perhaps ten thousand years older. But against that desire Gray Wolf was pulling from out the black ages of the forests. The wolf held him quiet and motionless. Nepeese was looking about her. She was smiling. For a moment her face was turned toward him, and he saw the white shine of her teeth, and her beautiful eyes seemed glowing straight at him.

And then, suddenly, she dropped on her knees and peered under the rock.

Their eyes met. For at least half a minute there was not a sound. Nepeese did not move, and her breath came so softly that Baree could not hear it.

Then she said, almost in a whisper:

"Baree! Baree! Upi Baree!" It was the first time Baree had heard his name, and there was something so soft and assuring in the sound of it that in spite of himself the dog in him responded to it in a whimper that just reached the Willow's ears. Slowly she stretched in an arm. It was bare and round and soft. He might have darted forward the length of his body and buried his fangs in it easily. But something held him back. He knew that it was not an enemy; he knew that the dark eyes shining at him so wonderfully were not filled with the desire to harm—and the voice that came to him softly was like a strange and thrilling music.

"Baree! Baree! Upi Baree!" Over and over again the Willow called to him like that, while on her face she tried to draw herself a few inches farther under the rock. She could not reach him. There was still a foot between her hand and Baree, and she could not wedge herself in an inch more. And then she saw where on the other side of the rock there was a hollow, shut in by a stone. If she had removed the stone, and come in that way—

She drew herself out and stood once more in the sunshine. Her heart thrilled. Pierrot was busy over his bear—and she would not call him. She made an effort to move the stone which closed the hollow under the big boulder, but it was wedged in tightly. Then she began digging with a stick.

Five minutes—and Nepeese could move the stone. She tugged at it, inch by inch she dragged it out until at last it lay at her feet and the opening was ready for her body. She looked again toward Pierrot. He was still busy, and she laughed softly as she untied a big red-and-white Bay handkerchief from about her shoulders. With this she would secure Baree. She dropped on her hands and knees and then lowered herself flat on the ground and began crawling into the hollow under the boulder.

Baree had moved. With the back of his head flattened against the rock he heard something which Nepeese had not heard; he had felt a slow and growing pressure, and from this pressure he had dragged himself slowly—and the pressure still followed! The mass of rock was settling! Nepeese did not see or hear or understand. She was calling to him more and more pleadingly:

"Baree—Baree—Baree—" Her head and shoulders and both arms were under the rock now. The glow of her eyes was very close to Baree. He whined. The thrill of a great and impending danger stirred in his blood. And then—

Colds
Start at night

Most colds start in the chest at night. Every hour you let them run adds to the difficulties.

Cold means congestion. In the old days our grandmothers applied liniments or mustard. The modern way is red pepper. It so excels the old ways that you will never use anything else when you know it.

Nothing else creates such concentrated, such penetrating heat. And heat that doesn't hurt. Tingling heat comes instantly. In three minutes it seems to penetrate to the depths.

Soreness—departs, circulation is started, congestion is relieved. You know at once that the cold is being effectively combated.

A cold in the chest calls for Red Pepper Rub. The sooner you apply it, the quicker the trouble ends. The relief will seem like magic, but it comes from the modern, scientific way to deal with chest congestion.

You do yourself injustice if you do not have Red Pepper Rub ever at your hand. Nothing else at your command does what this can do. And such situations demand the utmost help.

Zenith Radio Set
Price Raise Seen

The Zenith "Long-distance" radio which has taken such rapid strides as the "only set I could use in the far north" by Explorer Macmillan, has announced through its local agent, Carl Richards, that all sets sold before March 15th, would go on the old price. After that a general raise is ordered, with a guaranteed price for one year.

In explaining this raise Richards says, "Although most sets are dropping in price, the Zenith, with much of its output already ordered, is forced to curtail its production in order to keep up its standard. We have received notice that our supply will be limited after March 15th, so anyone contemplating buying would do well to act quickly and avoid disappointment."

MOOSE LADIES NIGHT IS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Song and dance featured the highly successful Ladies' Night of the Moose Lodge in Moose last night.

The speaker of the evening was Fire Chief W. P. Cooper who interestingly addressed the assemblage with outline of the work of the fire department, what it is doing and is planning to do, and on fire prevention.

C. L. Hinshaw and C. O. Sump, who are rapidly becoming famous as black-face comedians on the stage, entertained with songs, dances and general patter.

Several special dances were arranged by the entertainment committee, the principal one of which was a waltz in which numbers were given to everyone and as the numbers were called out the holder sat down. When all the numbers were called the last dancer on the floor was awarded a prize.

The 6-piece orchestra of the Berkeley High school furnished the music for the evening.

Scenic Grandeur of Rainier Park
Woven Into Background of Movie
Opening at The California Today

Eugene O'Brien and Mae Bush in "Frivolous Sal" today and tomorrow.

The scenic grandeur of Rainier National Park in Washington is woven into the background of J. K. McDonald's first National picture, "Frivolous Sal," which comes to the California theatre today and tomorrow. McDonald chose for some of the exterior scenes one of the few spots in America where snow may be found the year around.

His company numbering thirty-eight persons, with three cars of equipment, left Hollywood in the middle of August. They had just missed a heavy fall of snow on the summit, when they arrived at Paradise Inn, the nearest habitation to the majestic peak of Rainier. The mountain was blanketed with white, far down its slopes and the motion picture company, only three days from the semi-tropical summer of Southern California, found itself with in easy walking distance of mid-winter.

Other screen entertainment includes "The Goat Getters," a juvenile comedy; "Cross Word Puzzle"; International News.

A special added attraction is also included on today and tomorrow's program in "Matilda Meyer's Kiddies," twenty tiny singing and dancing tots in a dazzling juvenile revue with Larry Canelo at the mammoth organ. The "Kiddies" will appear at 9 o'clock each evening.

At The Richmond

All roads will lead to the Richmond theatre, today and tomorrow, because it will have as its feature attraction another "kid" story by Booth Tarkington. It is "Penrod and Sam," and it was directed by First National by William Beaudine. This picture has met with sensational success in all theatres where it has played to date, and it is said to have an appeal that is limited to no age or class.

Ben Alexander's portrayal of the character of Penrod is with a doubt the best work that this young artist has ever done for the screen. He is a natural actor and can draw tears and evoke laughter with a facility that is uncanny. Joe Butterworth who is Sam, is equally well cast. Other popular screen kiddies in the picture are Buddy Messinger, Newton Hall, Gertrude Messinger, Joe McCray and Gene Jackson.

Other features on the same program include "Fast and Furious," a Lige Conley comedy; the thirteenth thrilling chapter of "The Santa Fe Trail" featuring Neva Gember and Jack Perrin.

Lick Wilmerding Says Union High; Echo Says We Will

By W. MURRAY HANNON

Record-Herald Staff Reporter

Lick Wilmerding-high school, near champions of the San Francisco basketball league, will furnish the competition in the last game of the season for Richmond Union high school here this evening. The game will be played in the Richmond high gymnasium.

Lick high is battling with Lowell high for the championship of San Francisco and is reported to be on a par with any high school aggregation on the coast.

Richmond high has played the best of the best and has always come out on top of the pile. So far this season Coach Hill's cohorts have been victorious in ten consecutive encounters. They have beaten such quintets as Lowell, St. Mary's, Hayward and Tamalpais Military and have always come back with comparatively easy wins.

TWO STRONG TEAMS MEET

But on the other hand, Lick is an awfully strong team. They also have played and beaten the best and they are fully expectant of leaving the Richmond eagles in their dust.

But Hill's aggregation are not in the habit of eating first. It is their policy to let the opposition do that and they are confident that if there is any dirt to be eaten it will be the San Francisco men who will do the consuming.

Dope from one side greatly favors Lick, while dope from the other side gives the advantage to Richmond. No certain prediction as to the outcome of the game can be given as yet and most of the dope artists seem to be selecting the best team from a point of favoritism.

PUBLIC IS BEHIND THEM

However, whatever the outcome may be the local hoopsters are certain that they have the support of the student body to the very finish. New yells have been made and learned in anticipation of the contest. The 43-piece band of the school will be on hand to exalt the victors and console the losers.

It is highly probable that the crowd of basketball fans that will be at the game will be larger than even the one at the famous Hayward game, when every available inch of the gymnasium was packed and the

Those pesky photographers won't leave the King of Swat alone long enough to reduce from around 215 pounds to a weight which will enable him to cavort in the outfield and skid around the bases. They invaded the privacy of the "swat room" of a bath house in Hot Springs, Ark., and snapped the Babe at the precise moment when he had gotten down to 224 pounds. The home run king had hopes of getting down another peg or two before starting for the Yankees' training camp in Florida.

FAIRMEDE CLUB TO BE EQUIPPED ELECTRICALLY

The Fairmede Golf Club will have the first completely electrically equipped clubhouse in the East Bay district, according to an announcement today by Secretary E. S. Rust, following the signing of contracts for electrical equipment.

The kitchen will be furnished with electric stoves, toasters, percolators, egg boilers and other necessary appliances. Forty electric heaters have been ordered for the dining rooms, lounge, nursery and locker rooms.

Each section of the locker rooms will be equipped with a heater, which can be turned off and on at will, regulating the heat desired by club members using the particular section of the locker. Rust states. Hot water will be supplied by electrical hot water heaters.

An unusual feature of the electrical equipment, according to club officials, is the automatic controls located in the manager's office. From his chair, the manager will be able to determine the temperature in all departments of the clubhouse and will be able to regulate the temperature from his own office.

Electrical equipment ordered for the club is of the same type and design used by the United States

Lick Wilmerding Basketball Five Plays Here Today

This afternoon the Lick Wilmerding high of San Francisco sends its 100 and 120 pound case teams to give battle to the quintet of the same weight of Roosevelt Junior high.

"Doc" Seawright, head of the coaching staff at the Roosevelt school has his hoop artists keyed up to high tension in anticipation of the game and the boys are confident of sending the San Francisco eagles back across the bay smarting under the sting of a terrible walling.

The Lick teams are one of the toughest in San Francisco and dope specialists declare they will walk away with the honors of the game.

But "Doc" and his men have very different ideas. The whole student body of the school here is preparing to turn out for this, the biggest game of the season, and cheer their cohorts on to victory and the players themselves have great expectations of being returned the victors.

Shipping Board in re-equipping the Leviathan for trans-Atlantic passenger service, it is stated. All equipment will be installed in time for the opening of the club on April 1.

No Cold

If You Kill The Germs

Cold in the head is caused by germs in the membranes. Combat them promptly and the cold will not get a hold. Combat them later, and you end the misery, clear the head and check the cold.

The way is Ely's Cream Balm. Apply it in the nostrils and breathe it. Force its antiseptic fumes wherever the germs exist. The stuffiness ends at once, the inflammation is subdued, the cold is checked.

Don't suffer an hour. Ask your druggist for a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Enjoy its relief. Then in future use it to fight first signs of a cold.

Monthly Report of Health Dept.

According to the monthly reports of Dr. C. R. Blake, city health commissioner, there were 23 births and 13 deaths during the same period in 1924.

Sixteen boys and 7 girls were born during the month. Pneumonia or influenza was the cause of 3 of the 11 deaths, 1 caused from suicide, 2 from poison and 3 from heart disease. Three cases were handled by the coroner.

Communicable diseases were 12 chickenpox, 1 pneumonia, 1 influenza and 3 diphtheria.

The Morning Grouch

It is easy to end in an hour
Just add a sparkle to your rising glass

Why are so many people cross in the morning?
Just because the stomach is upset. The bowels are clogged with poison. Drink a glass of water upon rising, hot or cold. That wakes out the stomach and prepares it for food.

Then is an "healer" in one hour comes, erasing of the poisons and the waste. The system is fresh, the spirits are revived. You start the day fit and happy and efficient.

What a pity not to use them. Think what first days mean. And just a little Jad Salts in your morning glass changes everything.

Try this tomorrow morning. You will live two days in one. And never again will you let these persons cause a dull unhappy day. Every drug store has Jad Salts.

Building and Loan Directors Meet

The Richmond Building and Loan Association's remarkable growth was shown at the monthly meeting of the directors last night. The association was started only two years ago and has done over $100,000 worth of business since that time according to reports of Ira Vaughn, secretary of the association.

WHERE IT STARTED

THE DUMBELL

The original dumbbell was a simple machine, constructed like a bell-hanging device, a shaft and heavy flywheel, so that the athlete, holding the shaft, was swung to and fro, receiving a literal dumb-bell. A bell that did not ring. Later the modern weights were substituted to produce the same results and the same trick.

BIG PROGRESS MADE IN WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

Report of the work accomplished by the Richmond Y. M. C. A. during the year which closed January 31, and a report of the work accomplished with women and girls for the month of January was read yesterday by A. W. Mueller, general secretary.

More boys were reached during the past year than ever before, and the work for men was placed upon a firm foundation. Four hundred and sixty persons were reached by the programs of the association, exclusive of community work put on for men. With these are added the total reaches 576 persons benefited in the regular way, not including those who occasionally took part.

The Young Men's Division shows a healthy growth, having a maximum membership during the year of 67, an increase of 42 members. The business men of the community are showing increased interest in the activities promoted for them. The boys' work is progressing rapidly.

High school work has almost doubled its membership since December 15. The officers of the H-Y club have served for two years and are thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the organization. Fifteen members of the club attended the Older Boys conference at Fresno through the kindness and generosity of Mayor J. H. Plate, P. M. Sanford, C. E. Parker and A. Page Harlow. Sixty-five boys were members of the club on January 31, and many more applications are on file.

There are now 13 clubs of Pioneers and Friendly Indians, reaching 250 boys. A great deal of credit for the progress of the boys' club is due to volunteer leaders who number at present 18. Two of them, Bert A. Bussow and A. Page Harlow, are training for the association secretaryship.

The physical program has shown a phenomenal growth under the direction of J. W. Deeming. There are 162 men and boys reached by the programs and there were 7,452 parti-

Two Stories Are Woven Into Great Film Production

Merrylegs never would have been sorry to the cutting off of little children's cars and noses, and neither would Black Beauty. Sir Oliver probably would have balked at that if it had come to the point. Ginger was bitter, however, and with little wonder. The high strung, sensitive chestnut mare had suffered almost unendurable torment from the stupidity, the vanity and the brutality of certain human beings. They all liked Squire Gordon however.

Many millions of readers will remember that scene in the orchard at Birtwick Hall, with Black Beauty and the other horses discussing the conduct of humans. Now, at last the scene so wonderfully presented on the printed page by Anna Sewell is to be shown in motion pictures. "Black Beauty," which for more than forty years has preserved its place among the ten most popular books in the world, has been visualized as a Vitaphone special production, and will be shown at the Wesley M. E. church tonight at 7:15.

ations in physical events. This is remarkable in view of the fact that the season did not begin until the middle of last September. Mr. Deeming has also been putting in two mornings a week at the San Pablo school.

The women's work is only a month old but shows tendencies toward splendid development, and several women's gym classes have been formed.

As a direct result of association work, nine young men and boys united with churches, 57 made forward step decisions and 50 united with Sunday schools. The young men's gospel team did splendid work conducting services in churches. Bible study was conducted in camp and the boys' clubs.

SORE CHEST and NERVOUSNESS
In an Oakland Court on January 29, 1925, hundreds of people heard the testimony of Mr. D. Abillar of Mt. Eden and of Mr. J. Duarte of San Leandro, both of whom had been called as witnesses against Fong Wan by the Medical Board.

These men testified before the jury that the Fong Wan Herbs had permanently relieved both Sore Chest and Nervousness, and had made them strong and able to go back to work again.

They claim that no other treatment has repeatedly been vindicated in court and proved to be as effective as the Fong Wan Herbs.

This testimony was given in the first trial of Fong Wan in the latest campaign of the Medical Board against the Chinese Herbalists about the Bay.

EAST BAY ELKS GREAT BENEFIT SHOW TONIGHT

The East Bay Elks will stage this evening one of the greatest shows ever staged about the bay at the Oakland auditorium for the purpose of providing comforts for the veterans, who will be treated for tubercular troubles at the new U. S. Veterans hospital at Livermore and to cover the construction of a hostess home, where mothers, wives, and sisters of sick or dying veterans may be quartered while visiting at the hospital or perhaps attending the patient at the last moments.

The budget set by the Elks is $15,000 and with the patronage of the public it will be realized this evening. The tickets are $1.50 for the first floor and the first three rows of the gallery. The rest of the gallery seats will sell for $1.00.

The theaters of Oakland, the University of California, various military units and soldiers of fame will provide the show free of cost. It will start at 8:15 and run until after 11 p. m. without intermission.

Amplifiers have been provided in the great auditorium which will seat 9000 people and everyone will be able to hear every note and every word as well as have a clear view of the stage. There are no reserved seats, except the boxes. It is a case of "come early and get a good seat."

COURT OF PROGRESS INITIATES CANDIDATES

A large class of candidates were initiated into the Court of Progress Forerunners of America in W. O. W. hall last night with the work being put on by the degree team of the Court Shell Mound, No. 17, Oakland.

Chief Ranger, P. T. Duffy, of the Richmond court, presided over the members at the session. A number of grand officers were in attendance and all expressed themselves as very much impressed with the ceremonies in connection with the initiation.

After the business and initiatory session was at an end, a committee consisting of H. L. Nelson, chairman, A. Rodas, and A. P. Schwartz, served the attendants with a wonderful banquet.

ROOSEVELT JUNIORS DANCE TONIGHT

The student body of the Roosevelt Junior high school is having one of a series of dances at the cafeteria of the school this evening. The music is being furnished by the musicians of the school and the dances are for members of the student body only.

The Richmond Elks and war veterans are completing the sale of a thousand tickets here, but those who do not obtain tickets may do so at the box office and be able to get just as good seats as those who purchase their tickets early.

All lodges of East Bay Elks are sponsoring the show and the committee has picked only heading acts from the theaters. The best Orpheum acts, the entire T. and D. revues, picked acts from the State, the Fox and other theaters will appear. Other features on the bill are the California Glee Club with 600 voices, the infantry band from the Presidio and Wolohan's Californians.

Pianos, billiard tables, pictures, drapes, rugs, games and other comforts for the recreation halls and hospital buildings will be purchased for the inmates of the hospitals by the proceeds of the show as well as to erect a complete home on the hospital reservation for visiting relatives.

The magnificent hospital and its equipment has been provided by the government but it does not give the home-like features that may mean much in bringing sick veterans back to health and it is expected that generous co-operation will be given from all sides to make the benefit show this evening a tremendous success.

3. Wednesday Eve., March 25, 1925. Stated conclave; Opening, Long Form; Uniform, Fatigue; Work, Practice. The Commandery has been highly commended for its splendid turn-outs at recent meetings held in Berkeley and San Francisco, and as one of the results of this fine showing, the officers of Richmond Commandery have been invited to confer the Order of the Temple at Berkeley on Monday evening, March 23. It is desired to have as many members as possible attend this meeting.

Members of the Richmond Commandery have also been invited to attend a fellowship night to be given by the San Francisco Commandery of the evening of April 21. The Order of the Temple will also be conferred at this meeting.

Eighteen members journeyed to San Francisco on February 5, to take part in the Intercity Drill Corps activities. Several members were accompanied by their families and all were well repaid for braving the stormy weather by having an opportunity to witness the splendid drilling of the various drill teams. An organ recital and hand concert were features of the evening.

Arrangements are now under way for visits to the various Commanderies about the bay, and there are many pleasant surprises said to be in store for the members.

A drill team has been started by the Richmond Commandery and regular drill is held every Monday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 at the Richmond Y. M. C. A. Many highly interesting meetings are to be programmed for the coming year.

Following is the personnel of the Richmond Commandery:

Among the more aristocratic weaves that are clamoring for preferment this Spring Season, we'd say that Satin Cantons and Silk Broadcloths are entitled to first place. CHINESE SCHOOL BENEFIT SALE IS HELD TODAY

Charles R. Shepherd, director of the Baptist denomination of the Pacific Coast, and head of the Chinese Boys' orphan school at Ninth and Ashby, Berkeley is conducting a sale of Chinese merchandise at the First Baptist church of Richmond today for the benefit of the school.

The merchandise which will be sold was donated by dealers in Oriental goods of San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley and is of the best obtainable. The articles will be sold at a reasonable rate and it will be a fine opportunity for any local person to obtain almost any kind of Chinese articles he may desire. The school in Berkeley was started several years ago after a little Chinese boy who had run away from an extremely cruel father appeared at the school for Chinese orphan girls in San Francisco and begged to be taken. Miss Cameron who is at the head of the city school took him in until he was too old to remain, when she took the boy with one of his friends and started the school. There are now 38 orphans at the home.

TWENTY-THREE NEW BUILDINGS IN PAST MONTH

Twenty-three new buildings were started in Richmond during February, according to a report on applications for new water services made public by the East Bay water company. Each new water service indicates that a new building of some sort has been started, according to water officials, as water must be on the ground before work can start.

Building activity was general throughout the East Bay cities as well as in Richmond, a total of 667 new structures being started during the month.

In addition to the building activity, new families came to the East Bay cities from Washington, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Missouri, Ohio, Minnesota, Oregon, Massachusetts, Illinois, New York, Michigan, Texas, Maryland, Tennessee and Montana.
